

World Records Shattered In U. S. Air Races

By A. F. MAHAN, JR.
DETROIT (AP)—Keepers of American and world records began rewriting their books today, because no less than three speed marks were cracked over the weekend in the National air races.

Only one record, civilian or military, withstood assaults in what experts agreed was the "greatest demonstration of air power in history."

More than 165,000 persons saw the big show, 91,000 of them turning out on Sunday. The races and demonstrations were run off in ideal weather at Wayne (Detroit) County Airport.

Planes Split Sky

Not only air force and civilian pilots got into the show but so did the Navy, Marines, Royal Canadian Air Force—and the U. S. B-47 jet bomber. Almost another 100 were on exhibition on the ground.

Col. Fred J. Ascani of Rockford, Ill., broke the world and American records for a 100-kilometer (62-mile) closed course Sunday in the Thompson trophy race. Flying an F-26 Sabre jet fighter, Ascani averaged 628.393 miles an hour, compared with a world record of 605.230 miles an hour established in 1948 by a British-made Supra.

In a Friday warmup Col. Ascani averaged 635.411 miles an hour in a run officially timed by the National Aeronautics Association. NAA officials said this would be certified to the Federation Aeronautique Internationale for a new world's record for a closed course.

Speed Marks Fall

Col. Ascani's Sunday time also topped the old Thompson mark of 586.173, set in 1949 on a 210-mile course and a 30-mile rectangular course. The old American record was 586.173.

Indiana Bandit Shoots Michigan Tourist, Kills Gas Pump Man

LAFAYETTE, Ind.—(AP)—An Indiana filling station attendant was fatally wounded and a Michigan tourist shot in the hip Sunday by a husky, bespectacled robber.

John Martin, 45, the filling station attendant, died in a hospital of .22 calibre pistol bullet wounds in the back and stomach. A check showed $90 missing from the station cash register.

Four hours later and 50 miles away, Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Watkins, of Lansing, Mich., reported to state police they were accosted by a bandit who told them "I've already killed one man tonight."

The Lansing couple had pulled up in a roadside park four miles south of Noblesville to take a nap en route to a Tennessee vacation.

When they refused the robber's demands to get out of the car, he fired a .22 calibre bullet that wounded Watkins superficially in the hip. They then got out and Mrs. Watkins was robbed of $20 and a wrist watch. Watkins saved his billfold throwing it into a weed patch.

Failing to get the Watkins' car started, the robber shot three holes in a front tire and disappeared into a woods. Apparently he eluded a swiftly formed police search of the area.

The Michigan couple proceeded on their trip after Watkins was treated by a physician. Both are 45.

Ambush Attack Threatens To Wreck Korean Truce

'OFFENSIVE' SOVIET MEMORIAL GETS FENCE—American authorities in Berlin ordered an 18-foot wire fence built around this Soviet war memorial tank erected by the Reds soon after Berlin fell in what later became the American sector. The fence was ordered after West Berlins tried to burn the monument, resulting in exchange of sharp notes between U. S. and Russian occupation authorities. The Reds rejected a polite suggestion that the offending tank be removed.

Legislature Gathers For Quickie Session

LANSING — (AP)—The Michigan legislature convened at noon today for an unusual mid-summer special session with 123 of the 132 members present to consider six subjects.

Three of the subjects were opened unexpectedly by Governor Williams today in his message to open the session.

In addition to the three subjects already announced, the governor asked for the transfer of $95,000 in construction money from the Kalamazoo State hospital to the Northern Michigan Tuberculosis Sanatorium and to the Newberry State hospital.

Newberry Asks $60,000

The $1,200,000 appropriated for a new service building at Kalamazoo was more than needed, the governor said, while money appropriated for remodeling and additions at Gaylord and Newberry was below actual costs.

The Gaylord institution had asked for $35,000 and the Newberry unit for $60,000.

The governor also asked that the legislature either remove the $2,500,000 ceiling on the new Southern Michigan Tuberculosis Sanatorium at Kalamazoo or the removal of the requirement that the hospital contain 200 beds.

The legislature already has appropriated $1,600,000 for the sanatorium, but the governor said that rising costs will probably prevent the building of a 200-bed sanatorium for the $2,500,000.

Compensation Mixed Up

The lawmakers also were asked to correct an oversight of the regular session under which the contribution rates for employers to the unemployment compensation fund for the last half of 1951 were inadvertently stricken.

Until the rates are reinserted, it will be legally impossible to collect compensation contributions for the balance of the year, the attorney general's office has ruled.

The governor had already announced that he would ask lawmakers to consider legislation on:

- 1—Supplying more money for tuberculosis sanatorium facilities.
- 2—Providing state flags for Michigan fighting men and women.
- 3—Giving the final "go-ahead" for a new state office building.

May Go Higher

Governor Williams, who by the constitution has power to limit the subject matter of a special session, called the session originally at the request of the state administrative board.

The board had taken bids on

MacArthur Quarrel Out In Open Again

By ROWLAND EVANS, JR.
WASHINGTON — (AP)—The bitter quarrel over the dismissal of Gen. Douglas MacArthur broke into the open again today in the wake of a weekend Republican blast at the administration's Far East policy.

Eight Republican senators, in a statement to be attached to the 2,000,000-word MacArthur hearings, called on the Truman administration last night to demand "Liberation and Unification" of Korea as the price for peace.

They said "Communist infiltration" in the state department has affected Far Eastern policies of the U. S. government.

Democrats were quick to counterattack today. Senator Hunt (D-Wyo.) said that if the Republicans, headed by Senator Bridges of New Hampshire, want to risk world war three by "excessive" demands in Korea then they ought to come out and say so.

And Senator Kefauver (D-Tenn.) said the Republican attack on Far Eastern policies was "not constructive and factual at all."

He said it would do "more to divide the American people than anything else at a critical time when unity must be achieved at home."

The Republicans charged that the loss of China to Communists was due to the Yalta agreement and administration "appeasement" of Reds.

They called Secretary of State Acheson's Asiatic policies a "catastrophic failure."

But they did not directly endorse MacArthur's Korean war plan, which included bombing Manchurian bases, using Chinese Nationalist troops and blockading China. The administration said those moves might bring on another world war.

Republicans who signed the statement with Bridges were Hickenlooper of Iowa, Brewster of Maine, Cain of Washington, Knowland of California, Flanders of Vermont, Wiley of Wisconsin and H. Alexander Smith, of New Jersey, all members of the joint inquiry committee which held almost two months of hearings.

Peace Festival Bad For Reds

BERLIN — (AP)—Official western observers plan to label the Communist peace festival a "near disaster" for Communism in reports to their governments.

The festival wound up a two-week stand last night in a blaze of hate for the United States with half a million blue-shirted youths chanting allegiance to Stalin. The kids crowded trains and busses today en route to their homes behind the iron curtain.

Despite the mass hysteria whipped up by the Reds, western observers were unimpressed.

They drew three main conclusions from the activities of the past weeks during which about 2,000,000 Red-indoctrinated kids visited East Berlin. At least 1,000,000 of these are estimated to have visited the west to sight-see, for political reasons or just to pick up a square meal at one of the U. S. or British canteens.

1. East German Communist youths were exposed to West Berlin in such numbers, and liked it so well that they may flood their homes behind the iron curtain with pro-western feeling.
2. Many delegates from the satellite nations, restricted to the Soviet sector of divided Berlin, were impressed by the fact that the cause of Communism has been stopped cold at the border and hasn't the ideological strength to push westward.
3. The lack of enthusiasm among German youth cast a sharp reflection on the party indoctrination work and the men responsible for it.

Peace Dickers For Today Last But 70 Minutes

Buffer Zone Still Stumbling Block

By ROBERT B. TUCKMAN
MUNSAN, Korea — (AP)—Allied and Communist subcommittees met briefly in Kaesong today as a new crisis threatened efforts to stop the Korean war.

General headquarters in Tokyo said "Partisan forces of either side" may be trying to wreck armistice negotiations.

The statement was in reply to Red charges that U. N. forces ambushed a Red patrol inside Kaesong's five-mile neutral zone Sunday. A Chinese patrol leader was killed and a Chinese soldier seriously injured.

Talks Kept Secret

The subcommittees met for only 70 minutes Monday. It was their shortest session since they took over for the main truce delegations Friday.

There was no report of progress from the secret talks. But the negotiators agreed to meet again at 11 a. m. Tuesday (8 p. m. Monday EST).

The subcommittees are trying to hammer out a compromise agreement on the question of a cease-fire buffer zone. The main delegations argued this point for 10 days and found themselves completely deadlocked.

The Communists want the buffer zone to straddle the 38th parallel, old political dividing line between North and South Korea. The United Nations command wants it generally along present battle lines, most of which are north of 38.

Willing To Compromise

Both sides have indicated a willingness to compromise.

Illegal Aliens Menace Nation

WASHINGTON — (AP)—Senator McCarran (D-Nev.) said today a massive, illegal infiltration of aliens into this country is "potentially more dangerous" than an armed invasion.

The influx would provide an enemy nation "a ready-made fifth column," McCarran said.

The secret testimony of immigration officials, he said in a statement, showed:

1. Aliens illegally in this country as countable in the millions, and may total 5,000,000.
2. Among them are "militant Communists, Sicilian bandits and other criminals" in vast numbers.
3. The immigration service has made only small effort to locate and deport these unwanted foreigners because of a variety of factors, including lack of staff and money.

Another member of the subcommittee, Senator O'Connor (D-MD) said in a separate statement that Windsor, Ontario, and Cuba are assembly points for aliens seeking illegal entry into the U. S. He said arrests for attempted entry from Mexico total 500,000 a year. Many of these are "wetbacks," Mexicans who cross the shallow Rio Grande river to look for jobs as farm hands.

Harvester Factory To Turn Out New Army Troop Carrier

CHICAGO — (AP)—The army today released details of a new armored troop carrier which will be made at the International Harvester company's works in Melrose Park, Ill.

The armored vehicle, T18E1, will accompany tanks in combat and will carry a squad of 12 men. It is designed to protect occupants against small arms fire and shell fragments.

The vehicle will run on a full track, like a tank, and will carry its squad anywhere a tank can operate. This will permit putting fresh troops into forward combat posts.

The troop carrier is powered by a six-cylinder Continental engine and has an Allison cross-drive transmission.

Mounting a 50-caliber machine gun, the vehicle will travel more than 35 miles an hour on improved roads.

Reds Pushed Off 4 Hills In Korea By ROK Fighters

By GEORGE A. McARTHUR
U. S. EIGHTH ARMY HEADQUARTERS, Korea — (AP)—South Korean infantrymen using hand grenades and bayonets knocked stubbornly defending Reds off four hills in Eastern Korea today.

The South Koreans were within 100 yards of the top of two other hills.

Bitter hand-to-hand fights flared along the front from Kumwha to the east coast.

There have been no full-scale assaults by either side since cease-fire talks started in Kaesong July 10. But the Eighth Army said today the Reds have suffered 9,590 casualties in the past three weeks.

The figure covers the period July 28 to Aug. 17 and was given as "an evaluated estimate." It included killed, wounded and prisoners.

Eighth Army said also that South Koreans are doing the Allied fighting on the East and East Central fronts.

A spokesman said "ROK (Republic of Korea) troops of the first ROK corps and ROK elements of the U. S. 10th corps have been supported by gunfire from U. S. naval vessels on the East coast, heavy air strikes and by combined fire of United Nations artillery."

Air war flared again over the weekend. Jet fighters clashed in three swirling battles Saturday and Sunday. Fifth Air Force said two Russian-made MIG-15s were destroyed, one probably destroyed and six damaged. All Allied warplanes returned safely.

Cement Cake Fools Woman At Bake Sale

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich.—(AP)—Bert Ives, 69, has been a cement mixer for a long time. As a hobby he builds flower urns, bird houses and miniature wheelbarrows from cement, stones and glass.

Recently, however, he fixed up a cement cake and pie, complete with realistic paint job.

His "cooking" products were entered in a bake sale yesterday, and they looked so real that one woman bid 75 cents.

"She thought I had a lot of crust," Ives commented.

Alpena Bus Accident Kills 10, Injures 27

(By The Associated Press)

Thirty-one persons met violent deaths in Michigan accidents over the weekend.

Highway smashups claimed 20 lives, 10 in a bus and beer truck crash near Alpena. Six persons drowned and five others died in miscellaneous mishaps.

State police promised a full investigation into the Saturday bus-truck crash near Alpena that killed 10 persons and injured 27 others, nine of them critically.

Tried To Pass Car

State troopers explained they wanted to determine the factors that brought on the head-on crash. However, neither Sgt. Kenneth F. White, commanding the Alpena post, nor Alpena county prosecutor Donald Habermehl would say whether any prosecution was planned.

Arthur Aube, of Ossineke, 23-year-old driver of the big beer truck, and his assistant, Harold Ervin Bromund, 18, of Alpena, both lost their lives in the crash.

Bus driver Irwin Barrett of Mackinaw City was among the critically injured, and still cannot be questioned about the wreck.

However, state police quoted witnesses as saying the bus, southbound from Mackinaw City to Detroit with more than 40 passengers, tried to pass a car on the two-lane US-23. A northbound car swerved to avoid the bus and the beer truck directly behind, hit the rear end of the car and was thrown into the path of the oncoming bus.

Several Critically Hurt

The other dead, all passengers on the bus, included: Saradean Thomas, 25, 403 Geneva, Highland Park; Stella Gray, 50, 708 Allen, St. Clair; Hazel Wyatt Duncan, 885 Covington, Detroit; Mrs. Lois Hansen, 31, Detroit; Darlene Grice, 11, 811 Witherbee, Flint; Mrs. Iris Dennis, Muir; Mrs. G. T. Turner, 1119 E. Walnut, Lansing; Mary Gamal, Lansing.

Of the injured, the following were listed by Alpena General hospital attendants as still in critical or serious condition:

Mrs. Lloyd Pickett, 40, Alpena; Naomi Tyrell, 54, Royal Oak; Jane Lukeski, 33, Detroit; Mary Clouthier, 80, Flint; Herbert Dennis, 76, Muir (husband of Mrs. Iris Dennis); David Wilson, 15, Detroit; Mrs. Beatrice Cote, 36, Detroit; Marian Smith, 25, Toledo; Lucille Krallach, Toledo; and Sarah Pearce, 67, Rogers City.

Dig At Acheson Irks Democrats

WASHINGTON — (AP)—Democrats sought to eliminate what one of them called a "political dig at Secretary of State Acheson" as two Senate committees wrestled today with a $7,499,000 foreign aid bill.

Withholding comment himself, Chairman Connally (D-Tex.) called the Senate foreign relations and armed services committees together to start revising a measure providing military and economic assistance to America's Allies abroad.

Senator Hunt (D-Wyo.) told a reporter he will support a move to transfer policy direction of the big program back to the state department. Last Friday, it had been voted to put the program under a separate agency.

"I am discouraged and disappointed that the House took this political dig at Secretary Acheson," Hunt said. "I hope we can do something about it."

Hurricane Kills 109 In Jamaica; Heading For Gulf Of Mexico

MIAMI, Fla.—(AP)—The rampant Caribbean hurricane swirled across the Yucatan Peninsula today, adding to its huge count of damage and destruction.

It was headed for the Gulf of Mexico.

In its wake were 109 dead on the British island of Jamaica, and property damage already estimated at $56,000,000 and expected to mount as the stricken island surveyed more fully the ravages of the storm, the worst in its 300-year history.

The hurricane struck at Jamaica Friday night and Saturday with winds up to 130 miles an hour.

The storm's devastating force was slightly lessened as it slammed across land today, but the weather bureau here said it would regain some of its lost strength as it spread out over the open gulf.

The hardest blow was expected to fall between Merida, near the peninsula's northernmost tip, and Campeche, on the gulf and roughly 75 miles to the south.

At 5 a. m. (EST) today, the center of the storm was about 90 miles south of Merida.

Gales extended outward, to the north, for about 200 miles.

The extent of the damage to the Yucatan Peninsula was not immediately known. Radio stations closed down as the disturbance drew near, and other means of communicating with the stricken area were not available.

The storm had grown considerably in size and ferocity since it was first reported in the Caribbean and since it swept across the island of Jamaica.

It was moving in a west-northwesterly path at about 14 miles an hour, and was tabbed "large and dangerous."

After bringing terror, death and destruction to Jamaica, the hurricane lashed a glancing blow, powered by 92-mile-an-hour winds, at the British island of Grand Cayman.

Trapped In Stalled Auto At Wyandotte; Couple Hit By Train

DETROIT — (AP)—Unable to open the doors of their automobile stalled on a railroad crossing, a Selfridge air base soldier and his young woman companion were injured yesterday as a freight train hit the car and pushed it 200 feet.

The injured were Pvt. Martin Walton, 21, and Miss Barbara J. Fryer, 18, of Lincoln Park.

They told police that when their car stalled on a Grand Trunk crossing in suburban Wyandotte they could see a train approaching but couldn't get the doors open because they had apparently jammed. Both suffered head and leg injuries and were in serious condition at Wyandotte General hospital today.

Baruch, long an adviser to presidents, assured that "we'll come out of this all right."

He listed the Kremlin and inflation as this country's two main enemies as he appealed to Americans to "get to work."

OPA Checks Food And Liquor Prices

Enforcement agents from the Grand Rapids District Office of Stabilization are now in the field checking on compliance of restaurants and taverns with OPS regulation which sets ceiling prices for meals and by-the-glass sale of liquor and beer. District Enforcement Director James H. McLaughlin said Saturday.

Records and menus of several hundred establishments in West Michigan and the Upper Peninsula will be inspected.

"In the first places visited, we find that some operators have been very lax in record-keeping, although most of them are well-acquainted with the provisions of Ceiling Price Regulation 11, which governs the prices on meals and drinks," McLaughlin said. "They appear to have been particularly lax in keeping the inventory of food stocks necessary for determining operating costs as required by the regulation."

The restaurant and tavern regulation sets ceiling prices based on the operator's customary ratio between actual cost of food purchased by him and his total dollar volume. At the end of each four-month period the restaurant or tavern operator must be able to show that his "food cost per dollar of sales" during that period is no lower than his food cost for the base period he has chosen (normally either the calendar year 1949 or the 12-month period ending June 30, 1950).

Foreign Students Are Well Treated On Michigan Tours

W. L. White, writing in the September Reader's Digest of America's opportunity to spread goodwill abroad through the 31,000 foreign students now studying in this country, particularly emphasizes Michigan's efforts to make these students feel at home.

Mrs. Louise Carpenter, an assistant professor at Michigan State College, developed the idea for "Adventures in World Understanding." Under this plan, foreign students are shown at firsthand how the average American family lives, educates his children, works, plays and worships.

Rochester, Mich., was selected as the first "willing guinea pig." Here, on a typical "adventure," foreign students visited the public schools and a 200-acre farm, took their meals and spent a night in average American homes.

As word of the "adventure" spread, requests poured in from all over the state for a chance to entertain and talk with the foreign students. Support for the program, now in full swing, comes mainly from Rotary Clubs, the Farm Bureau, the schools and the CIO. The last has offered foreign students on-the-job training in factories.

On the Upper Peninsula, practically every Rotary Club gives the visitors a spin in a cabin cruiser. At Ishpeming they go into an iron mine, then follow the ore to the boat and through the canal locks. Barn dances, local auctions and ball games vary the schedule and broaden the visitors' knowledge of American life.

Naval Training Ship Visits Port

The USS P.C.E. (Patrol Craft Escort) 899 left Escanaba early today to rejoin the 9th Naval District Reserve Training Squadron that has been operating this year on the Great Lakes as training ships for reservists of the 9th District. The ship's commanding officer is Lt. L. C. Riley of Livermore, Ia.

Executive Officer Lt. D. R. Davidson of Hannibal, Mo. said this morning that ordinarily, about six trainee officers and 60 enlisted trainees are aboard on each training cruise, in addition to the ship's company.

"The 899 is primarily an anti-submarine patrol ship, with armament appropriate for a patrol or escort-type ship," Lt. Davidson said.

"The 899's home port is Milwaukee. That port is used for embarking and disembarking the reserve trainees on these two-week cruises. Escanaba is one of various 'liberty ports' away from home port' situated on Lakes Superior, Huron and Michigan.

"Every week the squadron is disassembled and the ships go to liberty ports. We're now training to the operating area. Many different training exercises are carried on in the operating area, including gunnery instruction and practice. Through these maneuvers and activities, the reservists are able to get their training."

This has been the ship's second visit to Escanaba. More than 300 visitors toured the ship yesterday.

Of Escanaba's attitude during the stays here, Lt. Davidson said: "It has been a pleasure being in Escanaba these two cruises. The ship's officers and men appreciate the manner in which Escanaba welcomed them to the community during the two weekends it spent here this summer."

LOST 28 POUNDS FEEL WONDERFUL REDUCES WITH RENNEL

Mrs. J. Burke, 2255 W. Grand Blvd., Detroit 8, Mich., writes: "I am 5 ft. 3 in. tall and weighed 156 pounds before taking Rennel Concentrate. I tried other reducing formulas but without success. Then I read about Rennel. After taking several bottles of your product I began to feel like a new person. In a period of six weeks I lost 28 pounds. I have recommended Rennel to several of my friends and they all agree with me that it makes you feel wonderful. I now weigh 128 pounds and feel better than I have in years thanks to Rennel."

It's amazing how quickly you can lose, unsightly fat at home. Obtain 4 ounces of liquid Rennel Concentrate at your druggist. Pour this into a pint bottle and add enough grapefruit juice to fill bottle. Then take two table-spoonfuls twice a day. That's all there is to it. No diets to complicate your meal planning. If the very first bottle doesn't show you the simple easy way to lose ugly fat and help regain slender, more graceful curves, just return it for your money back. Note how quickly blost disappears—how much better you feel. Insist on Rennel.

One wife out of every four is an emotional stranger to her husband... WHY? For the first time the screen dares to reveal frankly the vital problem that ruins thousands of young couples' lives!

Three Hurt In Auto Collision

Two In Hospital After Cars Strike Head-on

Three persons were injured, two seriously enough to require hospitalization, in a head-on auto crash Saturday night about 8:30 on Highway US-2 and 41 just west of the Escanaba city limits.

Fred J. Boddy III, 16, 427 South 12th street, Escanaba, and Robert Randall, 21, of 305 North 15th street, Escanaba, formerly of Gladstone, were the two drivers and both are in St. Francis hospital suffering from head lacerations and chest injuries. Kay Calvin, 16, of 509 South 14th street, Escanaba, a passenger in the Boddy auto, sustained minor cuts and bruises and several chipped teeth.

Michigan State Police investigated the accident. The report shows that the accident occurred when Randall attempted to overtake and pass another auto and in so doing pulled directly into the path of the oncoming Boddy car and struck it head-on.

Senate Will Speed Up Hefty New Tax Bill

By EDWIN B. HAAKINSON

WASHINGTON (AP)—Senator George (D-Ga.) called on the Senate finance committee to get down to brass tacks on a huge new tax bill today. He fixed a Sept. 1 deadline for presenting it to the Senate.

Summoning the tax-writing committee he heads into closed session this morning, George told reporters "we ought to get down to some actual voting today."

Before the committee is the House-passed tax boost which would add an estimated $5,000,000,000 to taxes for the rest of this year and $7,200,000,000 annually thereafter.

Most Senators hope to lop one or two billion dollars off the House increases, even though President Truman asked for a $10,000,000,000 boost.

George said no one knows how just how much of a tax increase his committee would recommend.

"We are not trying to approach it from a five, six or seven billion dollar basis," he said.

Instead, he said, the Senate committee will consider how much it wants to raise individual income taxes. The House upped them about $3,000,000,000 on a full year basis by providing a flat 12½ percent boost over present amounts paid.

Then Senators will turn to corporation taxes, which the House raised nearly $8,000,000,000 annually by lifting normal, surtax and excess profits rates.

Finally the committee will consider wide changes in the excise or sales taxes and the so-called "loop-hole plugging" provisions.

Copper Strike Is Postponed

SALT LAKE CITY (AP)—

A scheduled strike at the Kennecott Copper Corporation in Utah has been postponed but the move is not expected to directly effect other copper disputes in the nation.

The Utah strike was set for today.

The International Union of Mine, Mill and Smelter Workers (Ind.) has called a strike for Aug. 27. The union said metal workers and miners in some 50 cities would be involved.

These copper firms would be affected: Phelps-Dodge, Anaconda, American Smelting and refining and Kennecott.

The Utah postponement was announced by H. B. Douglass, co-chairman of a joint negotiating committee at Kennecott. He said the postponement came as the result of pleas by Cyrus Ching, federal conciliating chief and the Washington, D. C., headquarters of the AFL Metal Trades Council.

Contract talks between Kennecott and the AFL and UUMSW in Utah are expected to resume. The main point of contention are wage issues, mainly a 17½ cent hourly increase, and job evaluation, vacation concessions and pensions.

First Commercial-Scale Mining Of Low Grade Iron Ore Planned

ANNOUNCEMENT has been made by the Cleveland Cliffs Iron company that it will start commercial-scale mining and concentrating of low-grade iron ore at the old Ohio mine near M'Chigamme.

Although the operation will furnish employment to fewer than 100 men, much significance is attached to the announcement. It marks the first step toward the utilization of low grade ore on the Marquette range.

The Ohio was an underground property, which was opened in 1907 and closed in 1920. Open pit mining methods will be employed when the mine is reopened late this year. The Cleveland Cliffs Iron company also plans to extract low grade ore from the nearby Webster mine, which was closed in 1900 after 18 years of operations.

Several years of research have been done in the Upper Peninsula looking toward the profitable utilization of the millions of tons of low grade ores that lie in the ground. The Cleveland Cliffs, Jones & Laughlin, and Hanna companies have established research laboratories and pilot plants on the Marquette and Menominee ranges. It now appears that mining of these low grade iron ores on a commercial scale is regarded as feasible.

Despite the gloomy predictions of the depression era, iron mining is not dying in the Upper Peninsula. In fact, it appears to have taken on a new lease of life; in some places more vigorous than in the past.

The CCI, for instance, has invested millions of dollars in the Ishpeming-Negaunee area to develop properties that promise to increase employment by several hundred men, despite technological improvements that have tended to displace labor in recent years.

Announcement was made recently at Stambaugh that the Hanna company will spend several million dollars to expand and modernize the Bengel-Tulley-Baker mine. Preparatory work for the sinking of a new shaft at the mine already has been started.

The CCI also has been granted concessions to explore ore bearing lands in Iron and Marquette counties. Other mining companies are also conducting explorations all the time.

Interest has been awakened in low grade iron ores all over the Upper Peninsula. Several days ago, a diamond drill operator, who has worked all over the Michigan and Minnesota ranges, came to Escanaba to check on the exploration work done in Pine Ridge area of Delta county years ago by a company headed by the late Louis M. Schemmel.

All this mining activity is of considerable significance to Escanaba, which has the only iron ore shipping port on Lake Michigan. For years, iron ore mined on the Menominee and Marquette ranges has been transported by railroad to the docks at Escanaba for transfer to boats destined to lower lake ports and furnaces. In the past few years, some Gogebic range ore from the extreme western end of the Upper Peninsula has been shipped through Escanaba.

This iron port community has a tremendous stake in the low grade iron ore utilization program now under way on the Upper Peninsula mining ranges.

Munising-Escanaba Bus Line Quits

ABANDONMENT of the Munising-Escanaba bus line, announced last week by Leo Luedman, owner and operator, ends a service that has been of considerable convenience to the people in the area served, particularly residents of Trenary and Munising.

Unfortunately, the bus line has never been a paying proposition although it has been operated under several different managements over a period of several years. The convenience that it provided for the people of the area served was not rewarded with patronage of sufficient volume to make the bus route a profitable one.

The patronage developed by the bus line was dependent to a considerable degree upon railroad travel by Munising residents and the line's schedule was geared to the C&NW streamliner schedule into Escanaba. That patronage alone was not heavy enough to make a profitable operation and efforts to attract other customers proved unsuccessful.

GLOBAL WAIF (Christian Science Monitor)

It is always interesting to see the comparative amounts of money spent on different pursuits and activities — like the huge sums spent on liquor and gambling in the United States, for instance, as compared with the much smaller sums spent on education.

Recently we happened across a statement that New York City—which, be it remembered, is permanent host to the United Nations—spends as much to clean its streets and on other costs of its department of sanitation as the whole annual budget of the UN.

We would not have New York any less clean. In fact, there have been times when we would have had it a good deal cleaner. But when we think of the problems with which the UN and its specialized agencies must deal—the hunger, filth, ignorance, and unrest of masses of people all over the shrunken globe—we hope the world organization's smart New York appearance will fool no one into thinking it doesn't need the fullest possible support from the world's wealthiest nation even to keep alive.

Questions and Answers

Q—Are there any islands in Great Salt Lake?

A—Yes. The lake contains about nine islands, the longest being 16 miles in length.

Q—Is it a good practice to plant a new forest tree for every one cut?

A—No. The use of a method of cutting that will assure renewal of the woods by natural reproduction is generally more economical and satisfactory. Nature usually plants many times as many trees as man cuts, if man helps nature by providing proper conditions on the cut-over areas.

Q—Why do some people have wisdom teeth while some do not?

A—The wisdom tooth, or third molar, is the most variable as to its time of appearance. It may be cut almost as soon as the other molars, or many years later, or not at all. There seems to be no explanation of this variation in the development of the third molar.

BERLIN—I have just spent an evening behind the Iron Curtain. It's not hard to do here in Berlin where no guards patrol the line between the Russian and American sectors and where, if you flash a White House press card and look reasonably important, you can attend even the most exclusive of the Communist youth shows.

Berlin is a city of vivid dramatic contrast—miles of bunting and flags everywhere, flags of every nation but particularly and ironically the flags of peace. Sandwiched in between almost every national flag is the blue and white emblem of peace. Standing out against the gaunt bomb-gutted ruins of Berlin, they made a genuine appeal to the tired population which never wants to see war again.

There were other contrasts. A Czech youth orchestra in immaculate blue and white uniforms played before the pillars of Berlin's bombed-out opera house. They played well and sang well. At one side stood shiny new Czech buses made in the Skoda Munitions Works. One thousand of these buses brought the Czech youth delegation to this year's rally and they now stood in contrast to the bomb-wrecked weary pillars of the old opera house.

Across from the Kaiser's once-ornate palace which the Russians tore down and removed piece by piece, a great platform stood in front of the bomb-battered museum. The inside was an empty shell, but outside a Russian ballet, a girl in Georgian costume, and Finnish folk dancers all performed. It was Russia's youth exhibition and you had to admit it was good. Lighting, acoustics and staging were all perfect; the music excellent and the dancing superb. I couldn't tell what the girl in the Georgian costume said when she sang a ballad dedicated to Stalin and I don't think many of the German Communists could, either. But they liked her voice and applauded just the same.

Above the museum, the stone horse given to Kaiser Wilhelm by Czar Alexander II peered down at this modern-day Communist rally while, on the crowd's edge a group of young Communists peered eagerly at the convertible Ford Mercury in which I had been driven across the Iron Curtain. On their shirts was written "Activist," meaning their job was to whip up and activate enthusiasm among other party members. But they seemed much more enthusiastic about the modern motor production of the west than in Communism.

REDS' YOUTH RALLY NO FLOP

To read the headlines in American newspapers you got the impression that the Berlin youth rally was a flop. It was not. No rally which brings 2,000,000 youngsters together from all parts of the world is a flop and it's no use kidding ourselves.

The state department, with a meagre budget, did a miraculous job of attracting a quarter of a million German youths into the western sector, giving them food, literature and a sight of the vastly better living standards on our side of the Iron Curtain. But when the rally was only half over, orders came to close up certain youth depots. The food was costing $12 per day at one center and the state department's budget was exhausted. Congressman Taber of New York, Cleveland of Ohio and other economists had pinched too many pennies and a great opportunity was thus snuffed out.

However, three-quarters of a million other youngsters never entered West Berlin. They braved the straw spread out in schoolrooms for them at night, put up with the poor Communist food and attended ballyhoo programs, all for the sake of Communism. And a score of 75 per cent against 25 per cent means that eventually democracy loses out to Communism.

Manistique—The second large walleyed pike caught in the Manistique river this week was landed Tuesday night by Charles Jenerou. The big walleye measured 26 1/2 inches in length, 14 inches in girth and weighed seven pounds, one ounce. The big fish will be entered in the Escanaba Daily Press fish contest.

Dope Menace Flourishes On World Unrest; Reds Use It In Cold War

By EDWARD J. MOWERY
NEA Special Correspondent

NEW YORK—(NEA)—In the great sub-tropical belt stretching from the coast of China to the Adriatic Sea, papaver somniferum is a valuable, tenderly-reared plant on which hundreds of thousands of peasants depend for their bread.

The fact that the plant produces opium, the wrecker of untold thousands of lives, means little to the men, women and children toiling in the hot fields of Turkey, Iran, India or China.

To them it means ready money, not only for the opium but also for the millions of tiny poppy seeds, whose oil brings back 66 cents for every dollar obtained for the drug.

From these countryside dotted with swaying poppies, opium and its derivatives follow a tortuous and ever more criminal course. Eventually they slip past customs and border guards and fatten the wallets of the underworld.

To stop drug pushers in New York and the rest of the U. S., experts agree you must go back to the fields halfway around the world and plow under the crop which brings a living to peasants—and misery and crime in America.

The United Nations Economic and Social Council is studying means to limit world opium production to legitimate needs. But not even the most optimistic UN delegate believes global opium control will come in a year or two.

One UN spokesman from an opium-producing country put it this way:

"We'd gladly eliminate cultivation of the poppy overnight. But what revenue could we be assured of to replace our profits from opium? And unless we do replace this revenue, we face national bankruptcy."

Other producing nations have indicated similar sentiments and suggested subsidies, yet it would take another Marshall Plan to underwrite their losses.

No one can safely estimate current opium production. Where it is cultivated under so-called national monopolies, the admitted harvest exceeds 2000 tons annually. Opium produced under the Soviet might double this figure.

High medical authorities say flatly that the current global opium harvest is 11 times the world's medical needs of 450 tons.

Diverted from legal channels or harvested clandestinely in Asiatic mountain areas, 4000 tons of raw opium become the equivalent of 8,000,000 ounces of heroin. One ounce of this opium derivative is harvested from every pound of the poppy drug.

In other words, today's opium production, translated into the outlaw drug heroin, is sufficient to provide 29,000,000 addicts with three "caps" per day for a year.

The extent of the production and traffic in marijuana—the drug that paves the way to heroin—defies research. Indian hemp, whose leaves make the heady reefer, flourishes over millions of acres in virtually every country in the world.

Cocaine, entering the American market principally from Peru and Bolivia, has almost disappeared from the illicit market. This dearth has been attributed to the smash-

POPPIES AND THE WEED: Opium poppies and marijuana grow side by side in the fields of the California farmer (left) being questioned by a narcotics inspector. But whatever he grew was a drop in the bucket compared to the fields of poppies that flourish in Europe and Asia, where 11 times the world's legitimate needs are harvested to spread the menace of dope.

Good Evening...

By CLINT DUNATHAN

ANOTHER YEAR—The Upper Peninsula State Fair is ended for another year and—before the habit of recollection leaves only the pleasant memory—suppose we consider what might be done to improve the event in 1952.

The opinions we will express are our own. No one twisted our arm to make us write what we hope will be a constructively critical piece on the fair and its failures.

It is part of our job to be at the fair each day. We see it in fair weather and foul, on days of good and poor attendance, and over a period of nearly a decade have formed opinions based on experience.

We sincerely hope the fair officials will take the opinions in the spirit in which they are offered. A better fair may result.

THE PROGRAM—The week-long fair entertainment program should be examined for its faults and its virtues, with particular scrutiny of the so-called race and thrill events in front of the grandstand.

Such festivals of imminent death and destruction by professional drivers leave many persons completely unentertained. There must be death-defying stunts with less noise and more popularity—witness the old-fashioned balloon ascension on one day of last week's fair. That ascension should have been repeated daily, we heard folks say.

The twice-a-day show in front of the grandstand? The same old fare, many good specialty acts, nothing particularly noteworthy.

PARADE OF THE QUEENS—Recognizing the value of the U. P. State Fair promotion in centering interest on the fair from many communities, we offer the following comment:

"I am a fugitive from a queen gang." The comment is from a man who likes feminine pulchritude but thinks the queens' program in the evening is too long drawn out. He suggests letting the queens strut their stuff in the afternoon show, and in the evening herd them on stage and announce the winner with appropriate ceremony—but don't keep the audience waiting in the stands until nearly midnight.

RIGHT FROM THE FARM—Best outlook for the fair's future these past several years is the 4-H club boys and girls work and dairy. We can suggest no improvement.

But there must be more beef, sheep and swine in the U. P. than is represented at the fair. If not, bring in a few show animals from outside.

And horses! Weight pulling may be drama to a horse, but to most humans a good sleek running horse looks better on a track. The fair has a good running track with auto races. Let the horses run—wherever they may come from.

The above does not refer to trotting races, popular only with a few. We mean running races with riders and—if necessary for excitement—a few hurdles.

AND THE HOME—The home economics department looked better this year, but there is room for improvement.

For one thing, good cooking should be encouraged by all available means. This might include the selection of an Upper Peninsula homemaker queen, a lady young or old, fair, fat or sixty, who would be chosen for her ability in the culinary department.

Every county in the U. P. has a candidate for Homemaker Queen, and her local selection as a contestant for U. P. honors at the fair would bring the fair the advance publicity it needs.

And as a parting bit of advice: Let's have a woman or two on the U. P. State Fair board. Perhaps they might insist, for one thing, that the fair midway walk get a good hosing down to remove some of the debris.

Take My Word For It... Frank Colby Jr.

WORDS TO WATCH

Heard on a radio commercial: "Blank's Beer, your lay-zhour time beverage." The word is leisure; but the pronunciation "lay-zhour" is as erroneous as "play-zhour" (for pleasure), which smacks us in the ears with every twist of our radio dial. Also, the word measure is sometimes heard as "may-zhour," but it has no sanction whatever.

Leisure is LEE-zher; or, less frequently: LEH-zher.

Pleasure and measure should rhyme with treasure: PLEH-zher; MEH-zher; TREH-zher.

Heard on a network broadcast: "The frightened guests descended the fire escape to safety." Of course there is no "x" in escape, though a great many people do say "ex-cape." Better say: ess-CAPE.

Watch those "wh" words, wheel, what, where, and when. We hear all too often such expressions as "the w'el of fortune," "w'en will be arrive; w'at are you doing?" The "h" sound should not be omitted in such words. Prettier pronunciation then: hwheel; hwat; hwere; hwen. As a matter of fact, the "hw" pronunciation is the survival of the Old English spelling; wheel was spelled "hweol," what was spelled "hwaet," when was spelled "hwenne," etc.

A connoisseur is one who is a critical judge of the fine arts, or in matters of taste. The mispronunciation "KON-uh-SOO'er" reminds one unpleasantly of sewers and sewage. The correct English pronunciation of the French loan word is: KON-uh-SER, the last syllable rhyming with "her, per."

Overheard on a radio drama: "Our main character in tonight's play is an in-JEN-yoo-AY." That one stopped me, and not until the story was well in progress did it occur to me that what the emcee was trying to say was: ingenue, "a naive or ingenuous girl."

Ingenue is pronounced: AHN-juh-noo; or, less frequently: AN-zuh-noo.

Forest Recreational Maintenance

LACK of sufficient funds has been reflected in a deterioration of the condition of campgrounds and other recreational sites in the national forests of the nation.

Out in the West the National Forest Recreation association has been formed to work toward improvement of conditions. The association, composed of resort owners who realize the value of the forests in their business, has asked the campers to donate a dollar each for campground maintenance.

The Forest Service last year reluctantly experimented in the western forests with charging fees at certain campgrounds with meager success.

The real solution to the problem is for the Congress to appropriate enough money to adequately maintain the national forest properties in which it has invested millions of dollars.

The national forests in the Upper Peninsula, for instance, are getting increased recreational use each year. The forests are a valuable asset in the program to promote tourist business in this region. It is poor economy for the federal government to allow its national forest property to deteriorate into a sad state of disrepair.

Country Carrier

By Gordon Martin

Of intrepid public servants, we can boast of quite a lot, but there's one the country people know is Johnny-on-the-spot, for he never fails to serve them in the job he does each day, and he leaves a trail of friendship as he goes his busy way. He's the chap who daily carries mail along the rural route, and he surely is a worker folks could never do without.

He is more than just a messenger with many kinds of mail, for he carries lots of other things, in rain or snow or hail. He's a man with information, which includes the latest news, and he knows the farmer's problems, his opinion and his views. And he often goes beyond his job to do a kindly deed, with a little act of friendship for another who's in need.

Why, this man who plows the muddy roads or travels in the sun—he'll be there with mail, a greeting, and a smile for everyone, who along his route will welcome him each morning when he stops, to remark of folks and world affairs and horses, dogs and crops. He's so much a part of rural life along his daily route, that he's now an institution we could never do without.

Lansing State Journal Moves In New Building

LANSING —(AP)— The Lansing State Journal officially moves Monday to its new building, described as "one of the finest and most modern newspaper plants in the country."

Many departments of the newspaper have been operating out of the new location at the corner of Lenawee St. and Grand Ave. for more than a week.

The editorial department, which put out the Sunday edition at the old location, was the last to make the shift. The newspaper made the move without missing an edition or deadline.

Cost Two Million

The new home of the Capital City daily, a member of federated publications, is a sleek, streamlined building 155 feet square and containing 72,000 square feet of office space. It has three floors including a full basement.

Estimated total cost of the building, new equipment, a garage and a parking lot yet to be completed is $2,000,000.

The Lansing Bureau of Associated Press will be located in the building.

The structure is of reinforced concrete with exterior trim of Minnesota granite and Indiana limestone. The interior finish includes ceramic tile, black walnut paneling and painted plaster.

A new 210-ton, six-unit Goss headliner press with one color deck will be able to print up to a 96-page paper at a speed of up to 50,000 copies an hour.

Shifts to 8 Columns

When present paper stocks are used up, the Journal will switch from its present unique nine-column page to the conventional eight columns. The Journal was one of the few nine-column papers left in the country and used newspaper rolls up to 73 1/2 inches wide.

Features of the new building include a washed and filtered air circulating system, fluorescent lighting, a 100-instrument telephone system and a public address call system.

Special facilities include a conference room equipped for motion picture projection, a large library for the storage of reference material and back issues preserved on microfilm, an employees' lounge, a lunch room and a first aid room.

Almond conveyor systems installed to speed production are a belt conveyor for news copy, a pneumatic tube for classified ad copy, a chain conveyor for display ad copy and a gravity conveyor to lower printing plates from the stereotype room to the press room.

Sidewalks Heated

The new city room will have 2,500 square feet of floor space and the composing room 7,000 square feet.

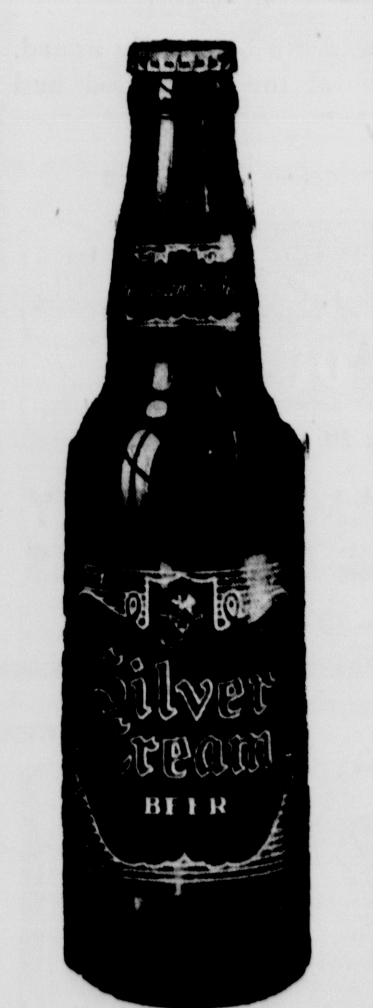

At the entrances, heated sidewalks will provide for continuous clearing of snow and ice during winter months.

Publisher Paul A. Martin turned the first shovelful of dirt to break ground for the building on Dec. 10, 1949. Architects were Morton L. Pereira and associates, Chicago, and the general contractor was Algot B. Larson, Inc., also of Chicago.

A feature of the main lobby is a reproduction in mosaic tile of the seal of the State of Michigan as it was in 1855 when a weekly was the first forerunner of the present newspaper.

On the landing leading up to the editorial rooms is a cross-section hewn from a giant oak that stood on the site of the building. Forestry experts have estimated the age of the tree, part of the Virgin forest that grew long before the

Paris Fashions Fail To Please American Girls

BY ROBERT C. RUARK
NEW YORK—I tarried briefly in Paris the other day in order to fulfill my sacred duty to the disaffection department, and must report that the new haute mode is even more expensive, if possible, and the models schawnier. And this time they are affecting tri-colored hair, possibly as a gesture of patriotism.

The myth that the average American is constructed entirely of platinum continues. You can order up a chic wool number, suitable for football games, for as little as $800, and a girl of simple tastes can pick out an evening dress anywhere for two thousand clams. Beads and sequins go with it.

Mama Was Shocked

For the first time in the history of high couture, it was not necessary to handcuff mama to the hotel plumbing fixtures. She took one gander at the Jacques Fath collection, murmured an obscenity, and confined her shopping to scarves. I take this as a hopeful sign.

A great many American suckers—I mean ladies—were saying a loud and profane "non" to the importances of the designers this year, on the simple grounds that they can buy it cheaper and prettier over here. You can stretch a chump just so far and eventually logic penetrates even the more obtuse female skull. My dreams lack a long walk to maturity, but there is a foreseeable day when the Yankee woman may realize that Paris has been playing awfully expensive jokes for many a dreary year.

Hats Jammed Down

Much of the delicious humor in the caricatures of gay Paris today is to be found in the hat department. Hats are jammed down over the eyebrows, giving madame the general appearance of a monkey with his head stuck in a bucket. The ones with fur and furs and feathers need a priscopo attachment to prevent the poor wearer from colliding with cabs.

PREREQUISITES TO GOOD HEALTH

A balanced diet and adequate rest are essential to good health. The Greeks recognized this simple truth more than five hundred years before the coming of Christ. Under the pressure of modern living, proper diet and rest are more important than ever before. Nutritious food and adequate sleep give the body energy—a chance to resist disease. For your health's sake, avoid fatigue, strain, and skimpy meals. Take care of your body. It's the only one you will ever have.

The bridesmaids were Miss Betty Salter, a sister of the bride, Miss Carol Hastings and Mrs. Richard Quinn. They all wore gowns styled like that of the maid of honor but of different color. They all carried colonial bouquets.

Mrs. Salter attended her daughter's wedding in a black street length dress with gold accessories. She wore a corsage of mixed flowers. Mrs. Ziarnik, the groom's mother, was unable to attend due to illness.

Richard Ziarnik, served his brother as best man. Ushers were John James, Richard Jonik and Nick Frankovich.

Breakfast was served at the home of the bride's parents immediately following the ceremony for the immediate family and wedding party. A reception was held later at the Knights of Columbus hall for 150 guests. The bride's table was centered with a three-tiered wedding cake topped with a miniature bridal couple.

The newlyweds left later on a wedding trip to the Copper Country. Upon their return they will make their home in Detroit.

The bride attended Manistique high school and at present is employed by the Michigan Bell company in Detroit.

Out-of-town guests attending were George Ziarnik, Edward Jakubiak, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Scoggins and son, James, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Quinn, Richard Jonik, John James, Chester Kaczanowski, Andrew Andruszkiewicz and Donald King, all of Detroit; and Mr. and Mrs. Neil DeVries, of Muskegon Heights.

Masons Ask Expert To Open Their Safe

MURPHYSBORO, Ill.—(AP)—A safe expert opened a Masonic safe which members had been unable to open since their late secretary died in 1943 with the memorized combination.

Lodge members had been all but ready to break into the safe to see their records.

But the job was done in 10 minutes by Tobe Monday who only twisted the dial and listened to the safe's inner workings. He did the trick in front of awed Masons who had requested the traveling safe expert to have a look at their safe.

Auxiliary Tea

In a beautiful setting, among the trees and facilities of the Indian Lake country club, the first social tea sponsored by the Schoolcraft Memorial hospital auxiliary was highly successful both from the financial revenue received and from the companionable, affable atmosphere created by the more than one hundred women from Manistique and surrounding areas who participated. The tea was held Friday afternoon.

After an afternoon of cards and conversation, tea was served from an attractive table covered by an emerald green cloth centered with an antique silver bowl filled with an arrangement of yellow daisies. These colors, sun-yellow and emerald green, were used throughout the color scheme.

Winners in the various games were: Bridge, high, Mrs. E. J. Brenner, and second, Mrs. Carl Wedell; canasta, high, Mrs. C. L. Novak, and second, Mrs. William A. Corson; pedro, Mrs. John Haindl.

In This Corner

With Ray Crandall

Contrary to popular conception, baseball, not boxing, results in the most deaths to participants . . . And boxing does not even rank second in the list of sports which cause fatal injuries . . . That dubious distinction goes to football.

A recent study by Dr. Thomas A. Gonzales of the New York chief medical examiner's office revealed that baseball injuries brought death to 43 players from 1918 to 1950, as many as football and boxing combined . . . His report revealed 22 football deaths, 21 in boxing, seven in basketball, three in handball, two in soccer and wrestling and one each in cricket, golf, polo and relay races.

Dr. Gonzales said that except for boxing deaths, fatal injuries in sports have received scant attention . . . He added: "Most of the contributions in other sports refer to isolated instances of deaths in which the circumstances are purely accidental, whereas in boxing the suspicion of a willful attempt to seriously injure an opponent may instigate a judicial inquiry . . . Hence the implications of such deaths have stimulated more thorough medical investigations."

Switching to a less depressing subject, we see that Brimley has appointed a coach to fill the vacancy left by Karl Parker, last year's Upper Peninsula basketball "coach of the year" . . . He is Paul Sonaglia, former Iron Mountain resident . . . Sonaglia attended Milwaukee State Teachers college and Northern Michigan College at Marquette where he received his bachelor's degree . . . The latest on Parker is that he will attend Central State Teachers college at Mt. Pleasant only on Saturdays (working on his master's degree) and will coach at Kingsley high school . . . He has a one year leave of absence from Brimley.

Marquette Golf and Country club was the scene of two more aces recently . . . Mrs. Grace Denny and Mrs. Jane Stobbeaer both turned in the rare holes-in-one on the 120-yard No. 3 hole . . . Dr. Mark Payant posted one there earlier in the season.

Tigers Defeat Browns Twice, Midget And All

DETROIT—(AP)—The St. Louis Browns and the customers had the fun. The Detroit Tigers played it straight and won the ball games.

That just about summarizes a doubleheader in St. Louis yesterday won by the Tigers 5 to 2 and 6 to 3.

The Tigers were still talking about Bill Veck's shenanigans as they returned home today to take on the New York Yankees in a twilight-night doubleheader today. The Yanks will be trying to bounce back after being forced out of their first-place tie with Cleveland by a loss to the Philadelphia Athletics yesterday.

Largest In Years
A crowd of 18,369, the largest Browns home crowd since May 4, 1947, turned out for Veck's "festival of surprises" yesterday.

Between games the new St. Louis president presented a hill-billy band, a parade of bicycles and automobiles of the gay nineties period, a comic solo dancer, acrobats, jugglers and other entertainment of vaudeville character.

The peak was reached, however, when the second game opened. The St. Louis lineup showed Frank Sauter leading off and playing right field.

Uniform No. 1
From the dugout came Eddie Gaedel, a 3 foot 7-inch midget, wearing uniform No. 1 and swinging three miniature bats. It was announced that he would bat for Sauter.

Umpire-in-Chief Ed Hurley immediately questioned Gaedel's right to be on the playing field during a regulation game.

But Veck and Brownie Manager Zack Taylor were ready. They presented an official contract which Gaedel had signed and was on file in the American league office. Even with Gaedel on the roster the Browns were within the 25-player limit.

Four Pitches
So the midget was permitted to bat. Detroit pitcher Bob Cain was dismayed at the prospect and called a conference with catcher Bob Swift. They could think of nothing to get around the trick.

Cain threw four pitches over the midget's head. Each would have been in the strike zone for a batter of average height. Doffing his cap to the crowd, the midget trotted to first base.

It was announced promptly that "Jim Delsing is running for Gaedel" and that was the end of the midget act. But don't forget Gaedel is still on the roster.

Gene Bearden hurled the Tigers to victory in the first game and Cain did the same in the second. The two porters had to share honors for spoiling Veck's show—as far as the official business went—with George Kell and Pat Mullin.

Five For Seven
The Tiger third baseman and the reserve outfielder found St. Louis pitching distinctly to their liking. Kell had five hits in seven trips to the plate in the two games, boosting his average to .339 and Mullin got six hits in nine appearances.

George Kell, Bearden, who hadn't started a game since July 15, outduelled the brilliant Ned Garver, who absorbed his eighth defeat against 14 wins. Bearden gave up seven hits and three runs in the first game. He was hit by two batters in the second game, but he struck out three batters in the first inning.

Bearden's first pitch was a fastball that struck the batter in the head. He was hit by two batters in the second game, but he struck out three batters in the first inning.

Bears Take Step Closer To Tri-County Baseball Crown

Manager Phil Brazeau's Escanaba Bears moved a notch closer to the Tri-County baseball league championship yesterday by whipping Daggett here 8-3 on the strength of a six-run uprising in the eighth inning.

For the Bears it was the sixth straight win of the second round, discounting a 2-2 tie game with Wallace that was cut short by rain. The Bears boast a record of 13 wins, two losses as the season moves into the home stretch. Escanaba will travel to Stephenson and is home to Hermansville in the two remaining games. No plans have been made for the makeup of the tied game with Wallace.

Trail 3-2
Yesterday the Bears did it the hard way. Opening with single runs in the first and second innings, the Bears were coasting into the seventh when Daggett came alive to score three and take a 3-2 lead.

The Bears raged back in the bottom of the eighth with six big runs. A scorching single through first base by Bob Dufour sent Dean Bailey home from second with the tying counter. Four errors, a wild pitch and a walk kept Daggett hurler Wimpy Drum in trouble and Brazeau, catching for Jim Nyquist who was injured in the first inning, poled a double to left field to clean the bases. Brazeau scored from third with the final Bear run on a balk.

Four-Hitter
Big Jack Beck kept Daggett well under control, pitching no-hit ball until the sixth when lead-off man Kuntze singled. He was wiped out in a double play, short to second to first. In the sixth, Beck was nicked for two singles and a double as Daggett scored all three runs. Beck fanned 10 and allowed only four hits in all.

The Bears had three errors, Daggett six. Brazeau's double and single in three trips led the winners at the plate.

Tim & Sally's Wins First Game In City Title Series

Tim & Sally's took the first leg of the girls city softball championship series yesterday afternoon by turning back Delta Hardware 3-2.

The winners broke a 2-2 tie in the last of the ninth. Eva Billings was safe on an error and was advanced to second by Jackie Chartrand's second single of the game. Maxine Koehler, who had gone hitless in three previous times at bat, belted a solid double to center field to score Billings with the winning run.

Early Lead
Delta Hardware scored twice in the third on singles by Elaine Niemi and Agnes Baribeau coupled with a wild throw to second by catcher Ruby Stoykovich that allowed both runners to cross the plate.

Tim & Sally's tied it up in the fifth on a walk to Carol Pilon and successive singles by Arlene Koehler, Eva Billings and Jackie Chartrand.

The second game of the series will be played next Saturday night at Memorial field.

AMO BESSONE, former hockey coach at Michigan Tech, has been named to head the sport at Michigan State College this year, succeeding Harold Paulsen. Bessone comes to MSC after four successful seasons at Tech. His teams won five of eight encounters with the Spartans over the past two years.

Near Spills
DeBacker toiled his 1950 Plymouth around the half-mile oval in competition with the best in the country, and his grim determination more than made up for lack of experience. Twice he brought the huge crowd gasping to its feet as he nearly spun out on the sharp turns, but both times he horsed his auto around to keep in the running. He was a constant threat to the front-runners in both his losing efforts.

Roy Boersinger of Spaulding had poorer luck. He burned out the clutch on his 1950 Plymouth and was forced to drop from his qualifying heat. Jack Marble of Gladstone did not enter.

In the feature, McDaniels beat out two other Fort Worth, Texas, drivers for top money. He snatched the lead from Tampa's Bobby Dugan after three-fourths of a lap had gone by. Dugan, also driving a '50 Olds, stayed in second spot until the 23rd lap. Breakdown

He ran into hard luck at that point when his fuel pump broke down and he was passed almost immediately by Jimmy Clark and Bob Stokely of Fort Worth. Clark's 1950 Olds took second money and Stokely steamed in third, half a car length behind.

McDaniel, whose time trial of 33.81 seconds for the half-mile put him in the feature race pole position, took home $315 for his end of the seven-event program. $200 of that was riding on the feature.

Bark River Host To Bears Tuesday
BARK RIVER — The Escanaba Bears, league-leading Tri-County league club, will invade the Bark River park for an exhibition clash tomorrow evening. Manager Leo Knauf announced today.

Ray Menard, regular starter, will open on the Bark River hill. Escanaba will toss fireballer Mel Karkkainen.

PRACTICE TILT
Daily Press and St. Joe Boosters will meet in a practice tilt Tuesday evening, 6:30 at Royce park diamond.

Grant and Lee met at Appomattox Court House, Va., on Palm Sunday 1865 to end the Civil War.

Benefit Games Called Off At Iron Mountain
The two benefit softball games slated at Iron Mountain last night were called off because of rain at the East Side Athletic association diamond.

Harnischfeger and Power & Light, class A and B champions, were to play Liberty Loan and Hosking-Harvey, Iron Mountain champs, in a benefit for Cecil W. Langren of Iron Mountain.

Cardinals Split In Doubleheader; Lose To Trenary
Manistiquie split a doubleheader yesterday, winning 9-2 from Perkins and losing 4-3 to Trenary, to tighten the standings in the Bay de Noc league.

The Cardinals will play a makeup game at Rapid River Wednesday evening at 6. A win will put the Cards in sole possession of first place in the final standings. A loss could result in a two or three way tie for the title.

Trenary's Paul Johnson stole home in the ninth inning to tie the score at 3-3. A triple by Gene Marceau and a base hit by Vince Trotter provided the winning run in the 10th. George Brown was credited with the win over Manistiquie and also pitched an 8-1 victory over Fayette. Don Carlson was the Manistiquie loser.

Chicago Black Hawks Close Hockey Deal
CHICAGO—(AP)—The Chicago Black Hawks, in the biggest cash deal in National Hockey League history, today bought six players from the champion Detroit Red Wings for $75,000.

The players are forwards Jim Peters, Jim McFadden, George Gee and Max McNab and defense men Clare Martin and Clare Raglan.

Besides the money the Red Wings will acquire rights to a young Black Hawk player to be named later.

Manager Ebbie Goodfellow of the Hawks said he recommended the deal to William J. Tobin, president of the Chicago club, to remedy defects in defense. The Hawks had one of the weakest defenses in the league last season.

Roberto deVicenzo, 28-year-old golf pro from Argentina, began playing the game when he was 14. The late Leo Digel won the Michigan State Open championship when he was 17 years old.

Yesterday's Stars
Batting: Dave Philley, Athletics—Pounded five hits in five times at bat as Philadelphia trounced the New York Yankees, 15-1.
Pitching: Early Wynn, Indians—Blanked the White Sox, 4-0, on seven hits as Cleveland split with Chicago. The White Sox won the nightcap, 7-6.
The War of 1812 ended on Christmas Eve, 1814.

Pedestrian Is Struck By Car

Alfred Hellman Is Accident Victim

Alfred Hellman, 308 S. 10th street, sustained severe head injuries early Sunday when he was struck by a car driven by Frederick Liedtke of Roger City. The accident occurred at 2:30 a. m. Sunday on Ludington street near the 12th street intersection. Liedtke and other witnesses said Hellman stepped into the path of Liedtke's car.

Peace Prospects In Korea Hurt By Ambush Attack

Kaeson today refused to let Allied newsmen sit on the veranda of the conference building, or stand near the two entrances. A pooled dispatch from Kaeson said the order came from "higher headquarters."

Presumably the order was issued to prevent any leaks on what went on inside the former tea room.

Friday and Saturday Allied newsmen heard bursts of laughter in the conference room. Saturday a correspondent peered through one of the open doors and saw the negotiators standing over a map.

Displaced Farmers Look For U. S. Jobs

WASHINGTON—(AP)—American farmers with labor problems can find a solution in the skilled European farmers now coming into this country from countries under the Communist yoke.

Rigidly tested by U. S. agricultural experts on their practical farming experience, the displaced farmers are mostly of German origin who were thrown off their farms by Communists. They are willing to start at the bottom as American farm workers. The more than 1,000 DP farming families are dairymen, poultrymen, cattlemen, wheat and corn farmers, truck farmers and hog raisers, for the most part.

Persons interested in sponsoring a displaced farmer may obtain more information by writing to the Displaced Persons Commission, Washington, D. C., or to their state Displaced Persons Commission.

East German Family Flees In Leaky Boat

MALMO, Sweden—(AP)—An East German family who fled their Communist-ruled homeland in a leaky boat were safe in Sweden today.

The mother, father and four small children frantically pumped water out of their frail craft all Saturday night and were exhausted when they were picked up by a Swedish lightship in the Baltic yesterday morning.

The family have been taken to Landskrona in southern Sweden where the aliens commission is expected to grant them asylum as political refugees.

Livestock Parasite Gets Phenothiazine

WASHINGTON—(AP)—The U. S. Department of Agriculture reports that outstanding gains have been made against livestock and poultry parasites through the use of anti-biotic drugs.

The department states for example that a program, recommended by the Bureau of Animal Industry, has resulted in control of roundworms in sheep. The bureau advised sheepowners to mix a pound of the chemical, phenothiazine, with every five pounds of salt eaten by the flock. The medicine has proven a safe and effective worm remover and owners have reported that sheep treated with the chemical have made satisfactory gains in weight. Similar experiments, including the administration of vitamin B-12 in diets of pigs and chickens have also been conducted with good results, the department says.

He Squares Things With His Customers

NEW YORK—(AP)—The Hotel Edison here reports that it received a package recently from a laundry in Poughkeepsie, N. Y. In it were six torn towels with the hotel's name on them. The laundry reported that a customer sent them in to be washed not noticing their condition, and wanted them replaced.

Irwin Kramer, the hotel boss, ordered a half-dozen towels sent to the laundry for its customer.

PRAYER FOR RAIN—Holding stalks of withered maize, farmer H. O. Franks of Krum, Tex., stands amid his parched crop, faces the blazing sun and utters a prayer for rain. Working Hours Create Problem

Merchants Forced To Curb Operations

By ROGER W. BABSON
GLOUCESTER, Mass.—I was asked by a Boston friend to help him find a cottage in Gloucester which he could rent for the summer. On the following Saturday, we visited three real estate offices and all were closed. They were locked and bolted.

Upon inquiring the reason, I learned that, in view of the recent raise in wages and the forty-hour week law, the real estate and insurance offices tried to "make both ends meet" by closing on Saturdays. This resulted in enabling the office clerks to have more time to themselves; but let us look at the result to the other parties involved.

This closing of the real estate office prevented my friend from renting a cottage because he could come down to look at cottages only during a weekend. The next two weekends were cold and rainy. This caused him to give up renting any cottage this season. I find this caused a loss of work to several different trades needed to be employed for opening up vacant cottages.

Why Costs Are High

Whether our sympathies are with these office employees or the clerks, the fact is that everyone involved loses by such nonsense. We clerks have no more money to take home; the real estate offices lose commissions; the cottage owners lose rents and the merchants lose customers. Higher wages may be deserved; but they should not be followed by shorter or fewer working hours which result in less business and higher prices. Certainly, this inflation balloon is bound to collapse sometime.

The plan of keeping an office or store open fewer hours in order to keep costs down is bad for the nation as a whole. Merchants are the bottleneck of business. The fewer hours an office or store is open, the less it sells; the less it sells, the less it buys from the factories. As retail sales decline, the factories are obliged to lay off employees. This unemployment results in less purchasing power and so the trouble increases. Working fewer hours may easily be a cause of the next business depression.

What Is the Remedy?

If prosperity is to continue more sales and more production are essential. This requires more work by all of us. "Money-wages" mean nothing until we turn them into "goods." What we can get for our weekly pay, in food, clothing and shelter are our real wages. This can be increased only through increased sales and increased production which requires longer hours, better work and more new inventions. Wages workers have more goods today because of inventors and laboratories—not due to labor leaders and politicians.

Shall we destroy unions? No! Shall we abolish collective bargaining? No! Shall we enact Anti-labor legislation? No! Consumers want satisfied labor with the highest real wages possible. But both employers and wage workers must co-operate to increase sales and production and the quality of the products. This could be brought about by agreeing on a wage that "the average" is worth and then pay a bonus for good work and more of it. Incentive pay is the consumer's only hope; and the wage workers make up 80 per cent of the consumers.

What About Strikes?

Then finished costs would go down, causing lower prices to can mark for a 100-kilometer race was 494.973, set in 1946.

Col. Keith K. Compton of St. Joseph, Mo., set a new transcontinental Bendix trophy record with an average speed 553.761 in an F-86 Sabre, flying between Muroc Air Base, Calif., and Detroit. The former Bendix record of 529.614 miles an hour was set in 1949 by Maj. Vernon A. Ford, jr., flying an air force F-84.

John Paul Jones of Van Nuys, Calif., won the continental trophy for midjet planes for the second straight year in record-breaking time. He averaged 197.218 miles an hour for the 37½ mile course. The old continental record which Jones set last year was 187.785 miles an hour.

The continental heat record is 188.667 miles an hour and the fastest lap record is 195.122, both of which Jones topped.

The only record to withstand assault was the Allison trophy race, which First Lt. William D. Beasley, of San Francisco and Austin, Tex., won at an average speed of 580.512 miles an hour.

The old record which still stands is 594.8 miles an hour set in 1949 by Lt. Walter C. Rew of the California Air National Guard.

Three Negroes Fall From Boat, Drown In Tittabawassee River

EDENVILLE, Mich.—(AP)—Three persons were drowned in Lake Sanford on the Tittabawassee river Saturday, apparently toppling from a row boat from which they were fishing.

The victims, whose fate wasn't discovered until Sunday, were Robert Kyser, 42, of Toledo, O.; Mrs. Lena Kyser, 44, of Monclova, O.; and Jerry Wicker, 42, of Saginaw. All were Negroes.

Steve Wooley, operator of a boat livery, said the three rented a boat Saturday afternoon. He discovered Sunday morning they had not returned. The boat was found half filled with water, but still afloat.

An oar was missing from the boat and Sheriff Arthur Kelly of Gladwin county theorized that it might have been dropped overboard and the trio upset as one of them reached to retrieve it.

Deputies, state police and conservation department employees recovered the bodies, dragging near where the boat was found.

The British surrender ending the American Revolution was signed at Yorktown, Va., in the home of Augustine Moore.

benefit consumers; while both real wages and real profits would increase likewise. But strikes which are costly to all parties must also be discouraged. It would greatly help in reducing strikes by inserting a clause in every labor contract that neither the labor officials nor the company officials could get any pay while a strike is on! This simple clause would do much to help out us consumers.

Another thought: Returning to my reference to the cottage. The owner of the vacant cottage had some idle money which he had planned to use in building another cottage next door. The fact, however, that he failed to rent his present vacant cottage caused him to give up building the new cottage. This will result in a loss to 27 different industries, from the woodsmen who cut lumber to the electricians, plumbers and painters. Yes, even the City of Gloucester loses one more cottage to tax while the new summer resident would lose a vacation making him more efficient all next year.

Legislature Gathers For Quickie Session

the office building. The low bids totaled $5,600,000, but the board had authority from the legislature to issue only $4,000,000 in revenue bonds to build the structure.

If the low bids were allowed to expire, there was every chance that future bids would be higher still.

So the governor on July 31 called the legislature for a one-day "quickie" session to authorize the increase in bond authorization.

Oratory Expected

In the interim, however, the other matters came up, and there is a possibility the session will last the week.

The tuberculosis issue is the most important. The governor has recommended the appropriation of $2,000,000 to build additional tuberculosis facilities in southeastern Michigan. There is also a possibility he will ask for more money for the projected state tuberculosis sanatorium in Kalamazoo and the state sanatorium at Gaylord.

This issue is due to produce the most oratory. The opening of the whole subject to the full legislature followed the refusal of a special committee to reconsider its decision to distribute all of the $3,000,000 the legislature left for local TB facilities in out-state counties.

This decision has been bitterly protested by Wayne and surrounding counties.
